

I am writing in opposition to the proposed deregulation/rule change.

In the interest of promoting a system of checks and balances, the current restrictions limiting/controlling media ownership should not be lifted.